Required Text: 1) Adolescence and Emerging Adulthood: A Cultural Approach 5th edition
Authors: Jeffrey Arnett

Available at the Oakland University Bookstore

Course Description: This course is designed to teach students about an important stage of human development called adolescence. This stage of development is explored in relation to many topics such as culture, physical growth, emerging sexuality, cognitive changes, the school environment, family influences, parental support, peer groups, moral development, and the value and goals that evolve over the course of adolescence. We will also discuss low academic achievement, drug abuse, teenage pregnancy, delinquency and emotional problems as it relates to the development of adolescence.

Course Outcomes:

By the end of this course students should be able to do all of the following:

- Describe physical, cognitive, social and personality development throughout adolescence.
- Have a keen understanding of psychological research and be able to write an APA style manuscript.

- Demonstrate an understanding of competing theoretical perspectives of developmental influences particularly as they relate to the effects of nature and nurture.
- Demonstrate a multi-level understanding of the influences of diversity issues as it pertains to adolescence and their families.
- Know the importance of genetic and hereditary factors and be able to describe its effects on teenager's physical, cognitive, and social development.
- Discuss and explain the influence of environmental factors within a growing teen.

Grading Information

Weekly Thought Pieces (20%) Every week a thought piece will be presented in a Discussion Forum on Moodle to start the weekly discussion on new material. You will be asked to answer the question by Wednesday and respond to two of your classmates post by the end of the week. Your participation in the discussion forum will be graded on the timing of the post, the replies to classmate's initial post, replies under your post from classmates and proper text formatting.

Assignments (20%): There will be short written assignments given throughout the semester. Each assignment and or case study will related to the lecture topic of the week. Specific directions for each assignment will be given in the Moodle Assignment activity. Due dates for each assignment are outlined on the course calendar as well as stated in each assignments instructions.

The Life of an Adolescent Paper (20%): This paper is designed to allow you to research any current issue today's adolescent may face (ex. teenage pregnancy, drug abuse). This is a two part process and you will need to include an analysis of theoretical and empirical literature to support your topic. Specific directions for this paper will be given in the Moodle Assignment activity.

Quizzes (30%): There will be quizzes each week in this course. Each quiz will cover information from powers points, discussion forums, and the required textbooks. Each quiz will consist of multiple-choice items. Grades for each quiz will be available after the quiz closes.

Comprehensive Final Quiz (10%): The quiz will cover all material covered in the course since the first day of class. Your final quiz will consist of multiple choice questions. Everyone must take the final quiz regardless of your course percentage going into the final quiz.

Late Submissions:

It is expected that all weekly thought pieces, assignments and quizzes will be taken and submitted on the scheduled date. The dates are listed in the "Course Calendar" section of the syllabus. Make-up submissions are only given under extreme circumstances such as death in the family, and illness.

Your Grade: Grades will be based on quizzes (40%), assignments (20%), weekly thought pieces (20%) and research paper (20%). All grades will be posted in Moodle grade book a week after the due date.

A NOTE ABOUT PAPER GRADING:

I strongly believe that paper grades should reflect both how well students address the content of the paper assignments and the quality of their writing. Thus, both content and style will be graded and given equal weighting in paper grading.

With regard to content, I will grade on: (a) Logic/coherence—does the writer address all relevant aspects of the assignment in a coherent manner? (b) Organization—is the paper well-organized given the nature of the assignment?

With regard to style, I will grade on: (a) Spelling/punctuation--is the paper free from misspellings, typos, and punctuation errors?; (b) Fluency--does the writing flow well without awkward and incomplete sentences? Are verb tenses consistent throughout and do you keep parallel forms in your writing?; (c) Is your paper appropriately referenced using proper APA format?

Plagiarism and Cheating will not be tolerated at any time.

Course Expectations

Attendance:

Students

Course participation is required. It is your responsibility to make sure your computer is compatible with Moodle. Students are expected to login at least 5 times a week and maintain active participation. You are also required to complete all assignments and take all exams as stated in the course calendar.

Instructor

As the instructor of the course I will login to the course at least 5 times each week Monday-Friday after 10am, moderate conversations in forums, grade assignments in a timely manner (within a week of the assignment deadline) and respond to Moodle Messages within 2 days.

Moodle: If you don't already know how, you will need to learn how to use Moodle on the OU computing network. This is an online course so everything is completed via Moodle. You can access your account by logging in through the OU homepage by going to the "Current Students" menu and clicking "Information Technology". Under "e-Learning & Instructional Support", click on "Moodle Login". For Moodle technical issues please contact the e-learning and instructional support office <http://www2.oakland.edu/elis/help.cfm?formname=moodle> . To get immediate help, call (248) 805-1625 weekdays 8 am to 8 pm and 10 am to 12 pm on Saturdays.

Technology: If for any reason the students computer crashes or internet fails it is imperative that the students has a backup plan to be able to login to Moodle. This means the student must have access to another computer or another location as needed. Smartphones and tablets are not the preferred hardware for this course it is strongly recommended that students use a laptop or computer.

Withdrawal from Class: If you choose to drop this course you MUST withdraw from the course by the University's official withdrawal date. Please check http://www.oakland.edu/important_dates to make note of these dates. It is the student's responsibility to be aware of the many deadlines for dropping the course. If you do not withdraw from the course and just stop participating, you will receive a Q in the course which is a letter grade of a F.

Special Considerations:

A student with a documented learning or physical disability must contact the Office of Disability Support Services, 103A North Foundation Hall, (248) 370-3266, and inform the professor of special needs during first week of classes. For more information, visit <http://www.oakland.edu/dss>

Policy on Academic Misconduct

The University's regulations that relate to academic misconduct will be fully enforced. Any student suspected of cheating and/or plagiarism will be reported to the Dean of Students and, thereafter, to the Academic Conduct Committee for adjudication. Anyone found guilty of academic misconduct in this course may receive a course grade of o.o, in addition to any penalty assigned by the Academic Conduct Committee. Students found guilty of academic misconduct by the Academic Conduct Committee may face suspension or permanent dismissal. The full policy on academic misconduct can be found in the General Information section of the Undergraduate Catalog. 9

Excused Absence Policy:

University excused absences applies to participation as an athlete, manager or student trainer in NCAA intercollegiate competitions, or participation as a representative of Oakland University at academic events and artistic performances approved by the Provost or designee. For the OU excused absence policy, see <http://wwwp.oakland.edu/provost/policies-andprocedures/>

Faculty Feedback:

As a student in this class, you may receive “Faculty Feedback” in your OU e-mail if your professor identifies areas of concern that may impede your success in the class. Faculty Feedback typically occurs during weeks 2-5 of the Fall and Winter terms, but may also be given later in the semester and more than once a semester. A “Faculty Feedback” e-mail will specify the area(s) of concern and recommend action(s) you should take. Please remember to check your OU email account regularly as that is where it will appear.

Audio Recording Policy:

Students who wish to audio-record lectures may request permission to do so. These recordings may only be used for the purpose of personal study. Students may not share these recordings with other individuals without the consent of the professor. At the conclusion of the semester, students may request permission to keep these recordings if needed, otherwise it is expected that all audio-recordings will be deleted from all electronic recording and storage devices.

Departmental Policy for Resolution of Student Academic-Related Concerns:

The student has an obligation to attempt to resolve all academic-related concerns with the instructor. If a suitable solution cannot be reached, then the student should consult the Department of Psychology Procedure for the Resolution of Student Academic-Related Concerns at <https://www.oakland.edu/Assets/Oakland/psychology/files-anddocuments/Undergrad-Advising/Resolution%20of%20Student%20Concerns-04-2017-approved%20full%20doc.pdf>

Veteran Support Services:

The office of Veteran Support Services (VSS) is responsible for giving support services to more than 300 veterans, service members, and dependents of veterans. VSS is staffed with personnel who are veterans and current or former students. Any student veteran or dependent of a veteran requiring assistance with navigating the Veterans Administration, understanding service-related benefits, or requires referrals to campus and community resources should contact one of the Veterans Liaisons by visiting 116 North Foundation Hall, or phoning 248-370-2010. <http://wwwp.oakland.edu/veterans/>

Instructor's Note:

I am looking forward to getting to know each and every one of you this semester! If, at any time you are having a problem in this course, please feel free to send me a Moodle Message. The only way I will be able to correct a problem and help you is to have it brought to my attention. I believe that this will be an exciting, fun and productive semester as we explore the world of Adolescence & Youth. Enjoy! 😊
